SYNOPSIS

See life from inside an eating disorder. Filmmaker Ida Lindgren invites you to the forbidden universe that each anorectic conceals from the outside world. A sensory, intimate and rhythmical depiction of a medical condition.

DIRECTORS COMMENT

I want to share my experience from living with an eating disorder. The self-obsession, self-loathing and anxiety. The difficulty in accepting help. I want those of you who have had an eating disorder to identify and to feel less lonely. And those of you who have not had the illness, I want you to feel it, to smell it. All from the inside.

IDA LINDGREN – DIRECTOR

Ida Lindgren is a documentary filmmaker born 1983, in Uppsala, Sweden. She gives children a voice through her films and has shown her work in Swedish national television, Fotografiska, at the International documentary film festival of Amsterdam, IDFA, among many other festivals. 2010 she entered Stockholm Academy of Dramatic Arts to combine her human interest, with the photography, in documentary film. With a strong cinematic eye Ida Lindgren brings us to new experiences.
